

Jeanne D. Brandt
OSU Extension Service – Washington County
155 N. First Ave, Suite 200 M-S 48, Hillsboro, OR. 97124
(503) 821-1117

Education

2005	Nat'l Assoc. Homebuilders	Certificate	Aging-in-Place Specialist (CAPS)
1999-2002	Portland State University	Coursework	Intercultural Communication
1986-1990	Portland State University	Grad. Cert.	Gerontology
1982-1984	Oregon State University	Ed. M.	Adult Ed./Family Res. Mgt
1980-1982	Oregon State University	B.A.	Home Economics Education
1978-1980	Central OR. Comm. Coll.	A.A.	Sociology
1979	Central OR. Comm. Coll.	Certif.	Certified Nursing Assistant

Professional Experience

2003 – Present Oregon State University- Extension Service, Washington County

1.0 FTE Family and Community Development

Develop and deliver educational programs and materials that address the needs of Washington County residents in the areas of Healthy Homes, Healthy Aging and Food Safety and Preservation. Serve as liaison for county and state-wide Family and Community Educators (FCE) program, state project leader for Healthy Homes Partnerships projects of USDA/CSREES, train and coordinate Master Food Preserver program in Washington and Multnomah Counties.

2007 promoted to Full Professor, Oregon State University

1996 – 2003 Oregon State University- Extension Service, Washington County

1.0 FTE 4-H Youth Development

Member of team providing 4-H program for Washington County. Specific responsibilities included coordination of home economics, expressive arts, cultural arts, horticulture and natural resources projects, the 4-H Adventures projects, county and state fairs and related activities; Summer Resident and Day Camp supervision; 4-H Family Newsletter and author/editor OSU TO YOU, 4-H Awards and Recognition oversight. County office media relations representative, County Marketing Representative.

1991 Granted Indefinite Tenure, Oregon State University

1991 Promoted to Associate Professor, Oregon State University

1986-1996 Oregon State University- Extension Service, Columbia County

.6 FTE. Extension Home Economics and .4 FTE 4-H Youth Development

Responsible for adult home economics programming concentrated on the management of resources by families and elderly.

Grantee/supervisor for federally funded Retired and Senior volunteer Program (RSVP).

Coordinated home economics and expressive arts portion of 4-H program.

Assisted with successful formation of Extension Service District and tax base (1988).

1985-1986 Oregon State University- Extension Service, Tillamook County

.6 FTE. Extension Home Economics and .4 FTE 4-H Youth Development

Responsible for adult home economics programming concentrated on the management of resources by families and elderly. Coordinated home economics, expressive arts and horticulture portion of 4-H program.

Assisted with successful formation of Extension Service District and tax base (1986).

1982-83 Harrisburg Union High School, Harrisburg, OR Home Economics, Career Prep, PE instructor

Taught all levels of consumer home economics, career education and PE. Advised Future Homemakers of America (FHA), including National Officer. Coached JV Girls Basketball.

1979-1982 Redmond Health Care Center, Redmond, OR Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA)

Provided daily care to elderly and severely disabled residents of long-term care facility.

Awards (recent)

2011 Continued Excellence in Extension Programming. National Award. National Association of Extension Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS). Albuquerque, N.M. 2011.

2010 Excellence in Outreach Award, College of Health and Human Sciences, OSU.

2010 Distinguished Service Award, Oregon and National Award recipient, Epsilon Sigma Phi, Extension Professional Association.

2009 National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) Western Regional Award, First place, Education publication. Stamp out Mold.

2008 National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS), National Housing Outreach Award, with Susan Busler. Mold in Homes and Buildings: Assessment, Prevention and Resolution.

Scholarship and Creative Activity Presentations at Professional Meetings

International

International Conference on Volunteer Administration (ICVA).

The International Conference on Volunteer Administration (ICVA) is the premier international conference for professionals in the field of volunteer development and management. Held annually at locations both within and outside of the United States it draws professionals from countries around the world. Between 700-1000 professionals attend this conference annually.

Abstracts for seminar presentations are evaluated through a single-blind, national peer-refereed process.

International Conference on Volunteer Administration (ICVA). Portland, OR.

Brandt, J. & Larwood, L. (2004). Multicultural Miscommunication, 1½ hours. 32 participants. Seminar presentation.

National

Association for Gerontology in Higher Education (AGHE)

The Association for Gerontology in Higher Education (AGHE) is a national membership organization devoted to gerontological education. AGHE develops and sponsors education and training initiatives to involve students, educators, researchers, and officials from across the country in providing resources for older adults, and for those who serve them. Around 500 participants attend the annual conference.

Abstracts for poster presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, national peer-refereed process.

Association for Gerontology in Higher Education (AGHE). Portland, OR.

Brandt, J. (2007). Using Medicines Wisely. A cooperative educational event of OSU Extension Service and College of Pharmacy. Poster presentation. Proposal accepted.

National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS).

The National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) is a nationally recognized association of Family and Consumer Sciences faculty. The organization's annual conference is a principal event for Extension Family and Consumer Sciences faculty to update their skills and knowledge regarding the issues facing families today. There are nearly 2800 members. Between 800-1000 members attend the annual conference.

Abstracts for poster, seminar or research presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, national peer-refereed process. There was a 66 percent acceptance rate for proposals at the 2006 conference.

National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS). Denver, CO. Philadelphia, PA.

Brandt, J., Raab, C., Kershaw, N. Rudolph, J., (2011) Safe and Healthy Food Preservation; Educating our Communities. National Association of Extension Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS).

Peer-reviewed poster presentation. Abstract: Guiding Professionals Along the Route to Empowerment, 2011 NEAFCS Annual Session and Exhibits, page 18.

Brandt, J. (2006). See the Future: Vision and Aging. Abstract: 2006 NEAFCS Annual Session and Exhibits. p. 11. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2005). Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys. 1 hour, 45 participants. Abstract: 2005 NEAFCS Annual Session and Exhibits. p. 17. Seminar presentation.

Children, Youth and Families at Risk (CYFAR)

Children, Youth and Families at Risk (CYFAR) is a federally funded program to assure that critical needs of children and families are met. CYFAR supports comprehensive, intensive, community-based programs developed with active citizen participation in all phases. The annual conference showcases successful programming from across the United States. Between 800-1000 youth educators attend this conference yearly.

Abstracts for poster or seminar presentations are evaluated through a single-blind, national peer-refereed process. Acceptance rate averages 40 percent.

National Conference of Children, Youth and Families at Risk (CYFAR). Boston, MA. (2005).

Manlove, A., Brandt, J., Magaña, M. & Hobbs, B. Camps: Culturally Speaking.....

Abstract: CYFAR 2005 Conference Program. p. 32. Poster presentation.

National Extension Conference on Volunteerism

The National Extension Conference on Volunteerism is a meeting of Extension state specialists, staff and educators who identify and share recent research, best practices and contemporary thoughts/issues regarding volunteerism across all extension program areas. Between 90-150 faculty attend this biannual conference.

Abstracts for poster, seminar or research presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, national peer refereed process. Acceptance rate for posters was 86 percent.

National Extension Conference on Volunteerism. Ferndale, AR.

Larwood, L. & Brandt, J. (2005). World Citizenship: It Takes All of Us! Abstract: Proceedings of the 2005 National Extensions Conference on Volunteerism. p. 12. Poster presentation.

National Association of Extension 4-H Agents (NAE4-HA)

The National Association of Extension 4-H Agents (NAE4-HA) is an internationally recognized association of over 3,500 professional youth development educators. The NAE4-HA Conference is the premier venue for dissemination of innovation among 4-H Youth Development faculty nationwide. Between 900-1200 youth educators attend this conference annually.

Abstracts for poster, seminar or research presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, national peer refereed process. Acceptance rate for abstracts ranges from 40-50 percent.

National Association of Extension 4-H Agents Conference (NAE4-HA). Seattle, WA, Oklahoma City, OK.

Brandt, J. & Knutz, M. (2005). The Effect of Participation of Youth in Camp Counselor Programs. 30 minutes, 35 Participants. Abstract: 2005 Conference Proceedings, National Association of Extension 4-H Agents. p. 22. Research presentation.

Brandt, J. (2004). 4-H Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys. Abstract: NAE4-HA 58th Annual Conference Proceedings. p. 32. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. & Larwood, L. (2004) Multicultural Miscommunication. Invited display presentation for the Global Education Pre-Conference. (Pre-Conference later cancelled)

Brandt, J. (2004). My World, 4-H Summer Daycamps. Invited display presentation for the Global Education Pre-Conference. (Pre-Conference later cancelled)

Galaxy II, National Conference for Extension Professionals

The Galaxy Conference for Extension Professionals is held once every five years to bring together in a combined session, faculty from all the National Extension Associations. This conference is sponsored by the Joint Council of Extension Professionals (JCEP). The 2003 session was the second Galaxy Conference held, with the next one not scheduled until 2008. Between 1200-1500 Extension educators attend this conference.

Abstracts for poster, seminar or research presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, national peer refereed process. Acceptance rate for abstracts averages 50 percent.

Galaxy II, Conference for Extension Professionals. Salt Lake City, UT

Brandt, J. & Larwood, L. (2003) Multicultural Miscommunication. Abstract: Galaxy II Conference Proceedings CD #893. Interactive game pieces, background information, completion cards, game board construction details distributed electronically, in response to 109 requests from Extension professionals representing 36 states. 26 pages each. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2003). My World, 4-H Summer Daycamps. Abstract: Galaxy II Conference Proceedings CD #238. Camp overview and interactive lessons distributed electronically to 71 requests made by Extension professionals from 29 states. In addition, sent materials following a request from a community coordinator in Saskatchewan CAN. 17 pages each. Poster presentation.

National Priester Extension Health Conference. Kansas City, MO.

Brandt, J. (2007). See the Future: Vision and Aging. Abstract: 2007 Priester National Extension Health Conference Proceedings. P. 25. Peer refereed presentation. 32 participants.

Brandt, J. (2007). Fall prevention: Stay on your feet and in your home. Abstract: 2007 Priester National Extension Health Conference Proceedings. P. 30. Peer refereed poster session.

Regional

Pacific Northwest 4-H and Family and Community Development (FCD) Conference

The Pacific Northwest 4-H and Family Development Conference is a joint professional development event for Oregon, Washington and Idaho 4-H and FCD Faculty. Between 80-120 educators attend this conference.

Abstracts for poster or seminar presentations are evaluated by a double-blind, regional peer-refereed process. Acceptance rate averages 50 percent.

Pacific Northwest 4-H and Family and Community Development Conference. Portland, OR.

Brandt, J. (2000). Washington County 4-H Summer Daycamps, Abstract: 4-H Poster Presentations. Single sheet handout in packet. Poster presentation.

State

Oregon State University Extension Association (OSUEA) Poster and Search for Excellence Presentations

The Oregon State University Extension Association (OSUEA) and its affiliated professional organizations host poster and Search for Excellence seminars to feature outstanding programming and research at each state Extension Conference.

Abstracts considered for poster presentations and Search for Excellence presentations go through a single-blind, state distributed peer-refereed process. Acceptance rate for poster abstracts ranges from 40-50 percent.

Oregon State University Extension Association (OSUEA). Corvallis, OR.

Brandt, J. and Busler, S. (2007). Mold Control Update for Extension Faculty. Abstract: OSU Family and Community Development Conference Schedule and Proceedings. Peer refereed presentation

Brandt, J. & Knutz, M. (2005). The Effect of Participation of Youth in Camp Counselor Programs. Abstract: OSUEA Poster Session. Handout in meeting packet. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2004). Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys. Abstract: OSUEA Poster Session. Handout in meeting packet. Poster presentation.

Arnold, M., Brandt, J., et al. (2004) The Effect of Participation in Youth as a Partner. Abstract: OSUEA Poster Session. Handout in meeting packet. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. & Larwood, L. (2003) Multicultural Miscommunication. Abstract: OSUEA Poster Session. Handout in meeting packet. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2000). 4-H Banks Natural Resources and Cultural arts Summer Daycamp, Abstract: OSUEA Poster Session. Single sheet in registration packet. Poster presentation.

Oregon State University Extension Association-4-H Affiliate (OSUEA4-HA) Seminar and Poster Presentations

The Oregon State University Extension Association 4-H Affiliate (OSUEA4-HA) hosts seminar and poster presentations to feature outstanding programming and research at each state Spring 4-H Staff Development Conference. Between 65-80 educators attend this conference.

Abstracts for seminar and poster presentations are evaluated through a double-blind, state peer-refereed process. Acceptance rate for abstracts ranges from 50-60 percent.

Oregon Extension Association of 4-H Agents (OSUEA-4-H). Corvallis, Bend, Eugene, Hood River, OR.

Brandt, J. & Knutz, M. (2005). The Effect of Participation of Youth in Camp Counselor Programs. 1 hour, 6 participants. Abstract: Conference Schedule and Proceedings, 2005 Spring 4-H Staff Development Conference. p. 8. Presentation and poster sessions.

Brandt, J. (2004). Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys. Abstract: Schedule and Proceedings OSUEA4-HA Professional Day, p. 14. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. & Larwood, L. (2003). Multicultural Miscommunication. 1 ½ hours. 11 participants. Abstract: Schedule and Proceedings 4-H Staff Development Conference, p. 5. Seminar presentation.

Brandt, J. (2003). My World, 4-H Summer Daycamps. Abstract: Schedule and Proceedings 4-H Staff Development Conference, p. 18. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2002). 4-H Summer Daycamps. ½ hour. 25 participants. Abstract: Schedule and Proceedings 4-H Staff Development Conference, p. 18. Seminar presentation.

Oregon State University Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (OSUEA-FCS) Seminar and Poster Presentations

The Oregon State University Extension Association Family and Consumer Sciences Affiliate (OSUEAFCS) hosts seminar and poster presentations to feature outstanding programming and research at each state Spring FCD Staff Development Conference. Between 45-60 educators attend this conference.

Abstracts for seminar and poster presentations are evaluated through a single-blind, state peer-refereed process.

Oregon Extension Association of Family and Community Sciences (OSUEA-FCS) - Lake Oswego, Tualatin, OR

Brandt, J., Rudolph, J. Kershaw, N. (2011) Community Food Preservation Education in Northwest Oregon. 4-H/FCH Conference, Seaside, OR. Peer-reviewed poster presentation. Abstract: Sea the Future, 2011 FCH and 4-H Conference, page 14.

Brandt, J. (2006). See the Future: Vision and Aging. Abstract: OSU Family and Community Development Conference Schedule and Proceedings. p. 8. Poster presentation.

Brandt, J. (2004). Multicultural Miscommunication. 1 hour, 22 participants. Abstract: FCD In-service, p. 5. Seminar presentation.

Brandt, J. (2004) Household mold/Moho De La casa. Shared resources poster.

Other Professional Development Conferences

Brandt, J. (1999). 4-H Water Resources materials and activities. OSU Water Quality Conference. Corvallis, OR. Invited presenter, poster session.

Brandt, J. (1991). Due Upon Receipt: Financial Concerns in Later Life. Regional Extension Conference on Aging. Extension professionals from Northwest Region. Portland, OR. 2 hours. 35 participants. Invited presenter, seminar presentation.

Refereed Professional Journal Articles

The Forum for Family and Consumer Issues

The Forum for Family and Consumer Issues is a refereed e-journal designed to integrate, apply and transit knowledge about issues of current interest in Family and Consumer Sciences. The Forum for Family and Consumer Issues includes articles that further the mission of Extension by facilitating the transfer and application of research based knowledge. The Forum is an online journal, written, reviewed and edited by Extension professionals and offers feature articles, applied research, program articles and reviews of literature and research.

Brandt, J. (2006). "See the Future: Extension's role in vision education for older adults." Submitted to the Forum for Family and Consumer Issues. September, 2006.

The Journal of Consumer Education

The Journal of Consumer Education is a refereed e-journal designed to present issues, trends and problems related to consumer education. It is a project of the University of Illinois Department of Agriculture and Consumer Economics and Illinois Consumer Education Association. The Journal of Consumer Education is an online journal written by Consumer Education professionals, edited by faculty of the University of Illinois. It includes position papers and research articles.

Brandt, J. (2006). "Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys." Submitted to the Journal of Consumer Education. August 2006.

Journal of Extension

The Journal of Extension (JOE) is the official refereed journal of the U.S. Cooperative Extension System. JOE expands and updates the research and knowledge base for Extension professionals and other adult educators to improve their effectiveness. JOE is written, reviewed, and edited by Extension professionals, sharing with colleagues successful educational applications, original and applied research findings, scholarly opinions, educational resources, and challenges on issues of critical importance to Extension educators. JOE is an online journal with a current acceptance rate of 32 percent. In 2005, JOE averaged 4200 daily visitors to the website.

Brandt, J. & Arnold, M.E. (2005). "Looking back, the impact of the 4-H Camp Counselor Experience on youth development: A survey of counselor alumni." Accepted by the Journal of Extension (JOE). August 15, 2005. Publication date TBA.

Brandt, J. & Arnold, M.E. (2004). "The 4-H Summer Cultural Arts Day Camp: Bringing The World to "My World." Journal of Extension (JOE) [On-line], 43 (1). Available at: <http://www.joe.org/joe/2005february/iw3.shtml>

Non-refereed Professional Journal Articles

News and Views

News and Views is the official publication of the National Association of Extension 4-H Agents. An editorial review committee (peers in the field) has the responsibility for critiquing submitted articles before inclusion in the publication. In April 2004, News and Views became an online journal.

Brandt, J. & Arnold, M. (2004). "4-H summer day camps bring the world to isolated children." News and Views. April 2004. Article and photos published. Available at: <http://newsandviews.nae4ha.org/article.aspx?id=4d7c775e-ca20-4670-a466-52e444f3ed64>

Brandt, J. (2004). "4-H Kitchen Boot Camp for boys prepares them for independent living." News and Views. February 2005. Article and photos published. Available at: <http://newsandviews.nae4ha.org/article.aspx?id+55714b92-d9d9-4374-ae93-66c74650025a>

Brandt, J. (2004). "Camp counseling offers more than fun." News and Views. July 2005. Article and photos published. Available at: <http://www.nae4ha.org/directory/newsandviews/article.aspx?id=a81c97ed-7e07-4855-a73f-cb0cafeea9f4>

Publications with Regional and National Distribution

Brandt, J. (2003-2006). Household Mold. Low literacy fact sheet. English, Spanish, Vietnamese, Russian languages. Washington County Extension Service. Distributed to State coordinators for Healthy Homes for America initiative, Washington County Housing Forum, Banks Senior Spring Luncheon, Sherwood Senior Center, Oregon Extension faculty. Used by request in distributed teaching materials notebook for 2005 Alabama Healthy Environment Conference following hurricane season. 2 pp. Over 1300 distributed.

Posted by request, EDEN (Extension Disaster Education Network) website.

http://www.eden.lsu.edu/Issues_View.aspx?IssueID=7DAC7F70-6C67-48CA-B953-951AAFDE32A9#Mold%20Information%20in%20Foreign%20Languages

Posted by request, CSREES Healthy Homes Partnership resources website.

<http://www.uwex.edu/farmasyst/library/hhlibraryview.cfm>

Brandt, J. (2003- 2006). Kitchen Boot Camp for Boys. Packaged program. Washington County Extension Service. Distributed to participants at National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences national annual meeting and in response to inquiries after feature article in 4-H News and Views. Electronic files sent by request. 10 states have reported use of the curriculum as part of their 4-H Youth Development programs. 12 pp, 156 distributed.

Brandt, J., & Larwood, L. (2005). Multicultural Miscommunication. Packaged program. Washington County Extension Service. Distributed to participants at International Conference on Volunteer Administration (ICVA), Oregon State 4-H and FCE annual spring staff conferences, Galaxy II Conference for Extension Professionals. Electronic files sent by request. Sixteen professionals from other states report using materials in trainings. 22 pp. 164 distributed.