CASCADES

Central Oregon Community College

Human Development and Family Sciences (HDFS)

OSU's multidisciplinary and holistic Human Development and Family Sciences program will give you the most current knowledge, practical skills and hands-on experience to excel in a field dedicated to improving the human condition by intervening during crises, helping people access resources and advocating for changes in the systems that affect the lives of those in need.

With a degree in this profession, you will be ready for graduate study in HDFS, social work, counseling, or marriage and family therapy, or for a variety of careers including child welfare, counseling, education, social work, public administration and many others. Prepare for a rewarding career empowering individuals, families and communities to survive and thrive by exploring research, theory and teaching.

Your Bachelor's Degree (BS) in the College of Public Health & Human Sciences

- A minimum of 180 credits are required for graduation; 60 must be upper division (300 and 400-level courses).
- A maximum of 124 credits earned at a community college may be applied toward a bachelor's degree at OSU.
- Only courses with letter prefixes and numbers above 100 can be accepted.
- Some courses can count towards your major and the Bacalaureate Core. Check with your advisor.
- Options available. See "Important Notes".
- See the OSU Catalog for a list of courses required for your major and option: catalog.oregonstate.edu

Important Notes & Resources

Important Notes for the College and Major:

- Grade requirements: C- minimum for all major required courses, see <https://health.oregonstate.edu/advising/resources/policies> for more information.
- See a sample degree plan by searching "Human Development and Family Sciences" at admissions.oregonstate.edu/find-your-major
- Option required. Select from: Child Development, General, or Human Services.
 - Only HDFS General Option is available via Ecampus and the Portland Hybrid program.
- Other similar majors to explore: Psychology, Sociology, Public Health, or Communication.
- Major required classes and some Baccalaureate Core are recommended prior to transferring to OSU.
- For HDFS students, the best time to transfer is any term, particularly due to the absence of series courses. Talk with an OSU advisor about your specific timeline.
- It is important to speak with your COCC & OSU Advisor early on, and often, to ensure correct course selection and sequencing.

Resources and OSU Information:

- Students do not have to complete a transfer degree in order to transfer to OSU.
 - If you've completed the Oregon AAOT, all requirements of the Baccalaureate Core are complete except for Synthesis Courses and Writing Intensive Courses.
- Preparing to apply to OSU? See admissions info: oregonstate.edu/admissions/transfer.html
- Want to take classes at both OSU and an Oregon community college? Check out the Degree Partnership Program: partnerships.oregonstate.edu/students
