

Dana C. Crawford,
105 Bates Hall,
Corvallis, OR 97331

phone: (541)737-8922
fax: 541-737-5529
dana.crawford@orst.edu

Position:

Family Advocate/Instructor, OSU HeadStart Pre-Kindergarten Program

Education:

B.A., 2001: Scripps College, Claremont, California.

Dual Major: Political Science and Sociology with an emphasis on the social effects of public policy.

Thesis: The Decriminalization of Prostitution and its Effects on the Status of Women

Oral Defense: Pitzer College; Grant Proposal to the Haynes Foundation for Research on the Welfare of Latina Workers in the Sex Industry in the Greater Los Angeles Area.

Written Defense: Scripps College; A Comparison of Social Policies in the Netherlands and the United States as Relating to Women.

Activities & Interests:

Research interests include: women's' welfare, gender studies, prostitution/the sex industry, public policy, population issues.

Volunteering: Coach for 7th grade Boys & Girls Club Basketball team, First Presbyterian Church Youth Group, Stone Soup, Retired and Seniors Volunteer Program, OSU Horse Stables, Special Olympics.

Hobbies: reading, history, maps, and spending time with my hound dog, Kobe.

Honors & Awards:

Target All-Around Scholarship

Presidential Classroom Scholarship

Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation Leadership Award

Corvallis-Uzghorod Exchange teaching Volunteerism

Soroptomists—local and regional scholarships