SCHOLARSHIP

Refereed Journal Articles

My current h-index is 14 according to Web of Science and Scopus. According to Google Scholar, my h-index is 14 since 2014 and 19 for all years. My i10-index is 21 since 2014 and 30 for all years (i10-index is the number of publications with 10 or more citations). My publications have been cited more than 1,100 times.

The names of students working under my supervision are in italics. Publications of students' dissertations or theses are noted with an asterisk (*). For all publications, I list the 5-year impact factor from the Journal Citation Reports and the number of times the manuscript has been cited according to Google Scholar.
