

Launch of

Oregon Early Learners: Facts and Findings

A website designed for anyone who wants to know more about early learning in Oregon

In a single click, you can now access the basic facts about early learning in Oregon. For over 25 years, Oregon researchers and partners have studied early learning in the State. Although each partner published their findings, readers had to know how to get them. Now you can access facts and findings in one place. Website sections include:

Families Served

Find demographic information on Oregon children and families in this section. In addition, you will find data on services delivered to children and families by Oregon's Early Learning Division.

Early Learning Workforce

Learn about the size and characteristics of the early learning workforce including education levels, race/ethnicity, and turnover rates.

Early Care & Education

Profiles of the state and each county capture the most salient characteristics of early care and education including availability and affordability of early care and education.

Quality of Early Learning

A Spark rating provides important information on the quality of early learning program that have voluntarily agreed to have their program assessed. You will also find limited data on the quality of all regulated programs.

Early Learning Research

Partners produce conduct research and evaluation studies on Oregon children, families, providers, and the programs that serve them.

<http://health.oregonstate.edu/early-learners>